About BARTI

Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Research & Training Institute (BARTI), Pune, is an autonomous institute of Department of Social Justice and Special assistance, Government of Maharashtra, working towards enhancing livelihood opportunities through various programs for the Scheduled Caste (SC) of Maharashtra.

This institute was established in the year 1978 under the name “Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Samata Vichar Peeth” and subsequently became autonomous under its present name in the year 2008.

BARTI has endeavored for causes which support and encourage the following:

- Empowerment of marginalized and weaker sections of the society in Maharashtra.
- Evaluation of various welfare measures and projects implemented by the Government for such disadvantaged sections of the society
- Contribution to the field of Equality and Social Justice through policy recommendations, advice and training programs.

Introduction of Mentoring the Merit (MTM)

‘Mentoring the Merit’ is a pioneering step towards the concept of ‘Early Art’. The importance of exposing children at early stage in life is still undervalued. It aims to provide young children an appreciation for Arts, Music, encourage exploration, self-expression and most importantly logical thinking which shapes the decision making capacity and confidence among children.

This initiative will encourage the selected Mentees to get access to expert counselors and career guidance sessions which in turn will help them to refine their talent. This initiative is aimed at providing opportunities to talented children having inclination towards arts and music. BARTI will systematically oversee and benchmark the progress of selected Mentees and provide support for best coaching / mentoring / training facilities.

BARTI recognizes the importance of Arts and Music as a tool for overall development of an individual. Being the Research and Training Institute, BARTI took MTM as a Frontier of Innovation (FOI) to understand the common challenges faced by the Mentees to pursue their hobby or interest as an option for a bright and promising career.

VISION

To scout for budding talent in the identified disciplines to ensure proper support and guidance for them to succeed.

MISSION

To provide mentoring and support to the identified talent in the field of Arts and Music for enabling them to win competitions.

Benefits to Mentees

Some benefits envisaged from the program are mentioned below;

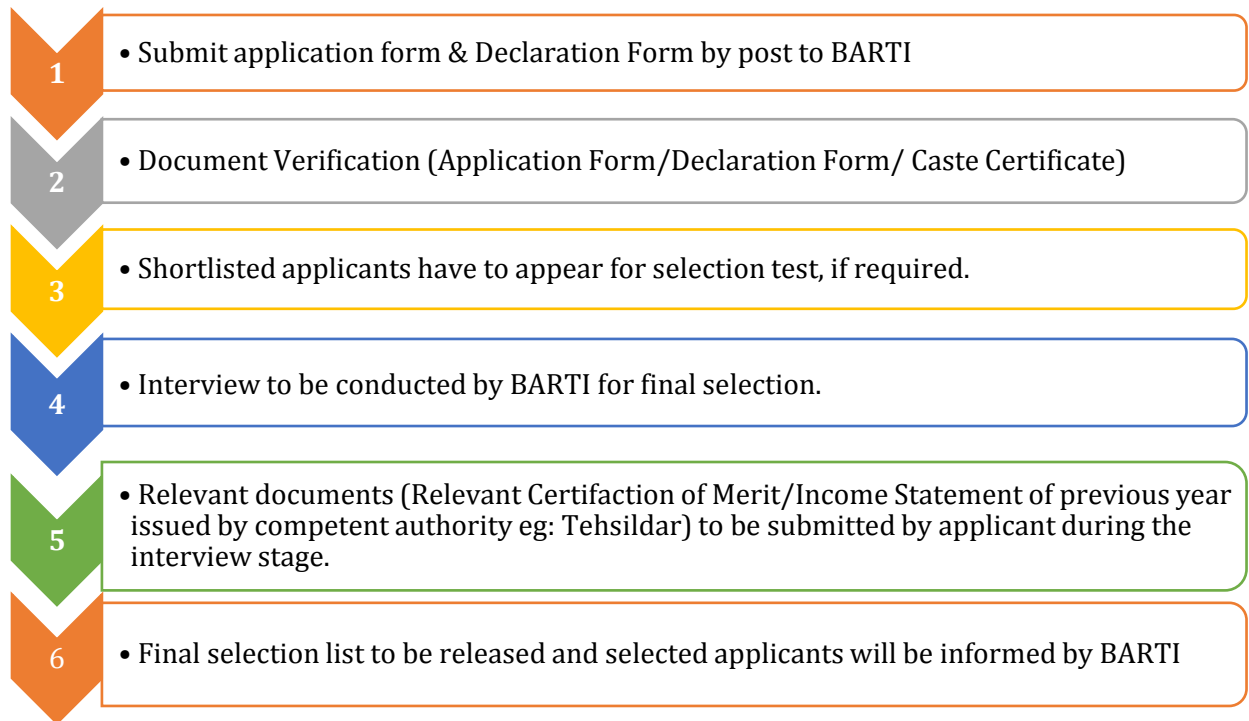

- Free High Quality Training Facility
